RYAN KERSHAW

and Open Mic All guitarists welcome

Don't Fret the Small stuff. A word from the President

So....., we had a great time at the Jambegue for 2014 and thanks to Dave and Judy Weston for putting on another perfect day for us. There are lots of photos on the website: www.nzguitar.com a bunch of past newsletters and other stuff being put on regularly, so go there and check it out.

On the 19th of Feb, we are having the open mic and a revisit from a past guest, Ryan Kershaw. He is up for a set with some pre-recorded backing tracks and a few tracks with help from some of our friends, followed by a Jam.

Also at the Jambegue was Ray from the Dairy Flat Blues Club. They are meeting first and third Friday evening of the month through the year and have extended an open invitation to any interested to join them for a jam or just to enjoy a night of great music. Thanks Ray. check out. www.dairyflatlive.com

In March, we have a special spot reserved for guitar students looking for a chance to perform solo or in a group. We will make this a regular spot for each month in the year. Please encourage participation of any unknown but enthusiastic guitar slingers or song writers as we are keen to provide an opportunity for new, young or old, talent.

Remember to bring your friends to the Clubnights where we have always provided excellent guests; or the Jams, where the music is usually good. The Pons is a great relaxing venue and the bar staff are the best in Auckland city.(Prices are great too !!)
So don't be shy, get up for the open mic, and remember to keep noodling, Dennis
