This month we are hosting International Singer/songwriter Donna Dean fronting her own Band and fresh from her New Zealand tour. This will be a really great night and one to be sure not to miss!! Please check the info in the newsletter and support this evening's guest.

As usual, we have an Open Mic beforehand and please book a spot by letting us know you are coming. Val is bringing her band with a new singer.

The monthly acoustic Jam has been well attended over the winter, thanks to Dean and friends, and we're ready to get some of these players up for open mic.maybe !!?

Keep Noodlin'

DONNA DEAN

Donna Dean's mother was a major musical influence and a talented musician. "Music was our common ground. We talked about musicians and music a lot. There were times she spent entire weekends jamming with other musicians in her kitchen".

Donna Dean has written songs for as long as she can remember. "I was writing songs in my head before I could even write my name. My mother taught me three chords on the ukulele and later on guitar. I wrote about family politics in my teens. Whatever was happening for me I'd verbalise in song rather than talk things through with somebody".

She has recorded four albums. One, an acoustic solo album recorded in London and two backed by Nashville-based band The Amazing Rhythm Aces. Her most recent album 'Money' (the extended version), a compilation of her last three albums, won the prestigious New Zealand 2004 Tui awards for the Best Album and Best Song for Country genre. 'Money' is on the play list of radio stations in Germany, Belgium, Holland, Sweden, France, Uruguay and Australia.

GLENN ROSS CAMPBELL

Glenn was inducted into the The Inland Empire Musicians Hall Of Fame in Aug 2009 in recognition of his contribution to Music over the past 50 years.

This is a clip from the 70's band "Juicy Lucy", which was an evolution of the earlier band he began with, "The Misunderstood" from California in the 60's.

He has recently retired from his day job at the Auckland Art Gallery, and can now devote his time to sharing great music.
